

Paying for Post-Secondary Where do I start to look for money?

- Parent Business
- Local Service Clubs - Rotary, Lions, etc.
- Church Organizations
- Provincial Scholarships
- Dogwood District Authority Awards
- Financial Aid Services at the university or college you plan on attending
- Canada Student Loan Program
- Local banks (student line of credit)
- Savings from work
- Relatives
- Work study opportunities at the university or college you plan on attending
- Job opportunities at the university or college you plan on attending
- Clubs (ie: minor hockey, community soccer, minor baseball, etc.)
- Parents' and grandparents' unions - unions where they work
- Veterans' groups
- Have a disability? Special scholarships & awards for people with disabilities
- Central Okanagan Bursary & Scholarship Society [C.O.B.S.S.] www.cobss.ca
- Trading cards, comic books or coins - collections worth money
- Newspapers & magazines ~ keep your eyes open for advertized opportunities
- Alumni associations if your school has one
- Internet research & websites
 - www.studentawards.com
 - www.scholarshipscanada.com
 - www.studentscholarships.org
 - www.schoolfinder.com/finance/index.asp